Team Building... Who is a quality prospect?

One of the most wonderful benefits of being a business woman with Mary Kay is the fact that we have the opportunity to choose who we would like to work with! Working with women who are physically, emotionally, spiritually and financially healthy will provide for a strong team and dynamic future Unit! When determining whether or not to interview a candidate for your team, take an objective look at her and ask the following questions of her (to yourself). Remember, our business works best on RULES rather than exception.

RULE	EXCEPTION
She pays a mortgage payment monthly.	She rents an apartment or lives with family.
She has available credit and uses a checking account.	She pays only in cash.
She has a support system (husband, family, etc.)	She is a single Mom or has no support system.
She has purchased a Skin Care System.	She has purchased just 1 or 2 items.
She has integrity—holds appointments made.	She's cancelled or rescheduled an appt. with you.
She has in depth questions about Mary Kay.	She has vague interest in knowing about Mary Kay.
She asked you how many hours you work.	She asked you how many hours do you HAVE to work.
She asked how much inventory is best.	She asked if you HAD to have inventory.
She would do things the Mary Kay way.	She looks for shortcuts, curses and speaks negatively.
She has high standards for her appearance.	She places little importance on her appearance.
She could write a check today for her Starter Kit.	She has to wait to save money for her Starter Kit.
She has expressed a desire to want to make a change.	You have impressed upon her a need to make a change.
She is an optimist (The glass is half full!).	She is a pessimist (The glass is half empty).
She is 25 or older.	She is 24 or younger.
She has a bright cheerful spirit.	She doesn't smile often.
She has a passionate quality about her.	She reveals little emotion.
She enjoys a challenge.	She would rather be a follower.
She maintains strong eye contact with you.	She finds it difficult to look you in the eye.
She has been highly successful in previous endeavors.	She has half heartedly pursued other things.
She has a strong work ethic.	She lives on public assistance.
She loves Mary Kay products.	She has never tried the products.
She has great bounce-back-ability.	Obstacles tend to stop her.
She is decision maker.	She often has to ask others for their opinion.
She has a strong self confidence.	She often seeks approval of others.
She uses her children as a reason to begin.	She uses her children as an excuse not to start.
She owns a car.	She owns no car or only has one in the family.
She purchased her products in full.	She used the payment plan.

QUALITY PROSPECT: 20 OR MORE IN THE RULE COMUMN.

Desirable Prospect: 15-19 in the Rule Column.

An Exception: Less than 15 in the Rule Column.

She's more likely to be a good customer. Ask yourself, "If my team consisted of all Consultants just like this prospect (An Exception), would I have a successful, professional and goal oriented team?"